JEFF HANSON GENEROUS HEART SHOW

Jeffrey Owen Hanson, the 15-year-old artist with neurofibromatosis, a genetic disorder that causes tumors on the central nervous system, presented an art show to benefit the Lisa Barth Chapel for the Kansas City Children's Mercy Hospital. Jeffrey sold more than 100 paintings during a mid-summer event, bringing his total charitable contributions to-date to more than $100,000 benefiting 12 charities around the world.
